

When The Vast Expanse Of Ocean

1. When the vast expanse of ocean spreads its azure for my view, night-y 2. When I see a silent full moon soar - ing o're the slum'ring hills, and the
 3. When a tin - y seed - ling bur - ied springs forth in - to vib - rant life, with I waves and rol-ling bil - lows Lord they shout a - loud for you. The I'm made to sit and sweep - ing star - ry heav - ens from my soul true wor - ship you. I con - sid - er how you see a cat - er - pil - lar turn in - to a but - ter - fly when I bow my head in pon - der at the won - der of your plan. That a God with so much pow - er used his made me so that I could wor - ship you. That you sent your son to save me long be - shame of my wis - dom o so small. But I praise my heavn - ly Fa - ther who is might fore watch - ing make trust o - ed ver man. you. all.