

Don't Forget Your God

1. In a land of springs and foun-tains flow-ing from the moun-tains. In a land of milk and hon-ey with no
2. In a land of gems and met-als Where your gold is mul-ti-plyed Where your har-vest fills your store-house to the end. In a land of figs and bar ley of oil and wheat and hon-ey where you are thirst-y hun-ger abrim. Where your flocks and herds are spread-ing ov-er e-very hill and dale Don't for-get the Lord your God who ne-ver gain. Do let your heart be lift-ed and for-get the Lord your King who has pulled you from the mir-y clay and fails.

made your cold heart sing. Who has led you from the sin-ners' path the you once thought you loved who has cast your black-est sin a-way and washed you in his blood. And I tes-tify a- gainst you that you'll per-ish one and all and your en-e-mies shall tri-umph o-ver y-e-v-er-y war If you add or take a-way from the book that I have giv'n if you do for-get your God who has

pro-mised all of heav'n